Moodle

Other relevant policies

Other relevant policies

These guidelines should be used in conjunction with the following University staff policies which can be found on the University web site:

- Rules made by the Information Services Committee

- Use and misuse of computing facilities

In the event of any conflict between these web pages and any University Policy the terms in the policy will govern.